*Recessional

Above is the basic and traditional layout of a Church Mass Wedding Ceremony. The areas highlighted with ~*~ are those that are not required to be sung, spoken in many cases and those highlighted with * are suggested music choices which can be sung/played during a Civil Wedding Ceremony.

NB: Some music choices may be deemed inappropriate for Traditional Church wedding ceremony but I have done the hard work for you and completed the following list below so they should be okay with your Priest. It is advisable however; you show your music selection to your Solemniser/ Priest before we confirm your final song choices.

The collection of hymns and songs I have here is only a guide of what I have sung at past civil and church weddings. If there is a song or hymn not listed here and you wish to add, just drop me a line. I am more than happy to learn new material but do give me some notice!

This offer is limited to one song per wedding.

Aisle Do! Wedding Services – T&C's the small print

1. In these Terms and Conditions, you are hereinafter referred to as the Client, and Aisle Do! Wedding Services/ Vanessa, is hereinafter called the entertainer. The Client engages the entertainer, and the entertainer accepts the engagement to appear at the venue on the date and at the times and for the fee as shown in the Booking Form subject to these Terms and Conditions.
2. A copy of a signed and completed Booking Form with a 100-euro deposit is required to secure your date.
3. The balance of the non-refundable booking fee, as specified on the Booking Form, must be paid in cash on the day of the event, either prior to when Vanessa commences the performance.
4. The total fee quoted is in respect of a performance during the times specified by the Entertainer. If the Client requests that the performance time be extended, or that an early set up is required prior to the event, then the additional period and fee must be negotiated with the entertainer.
5. When a booking has been formally cancelled, and that cancellation has been accepted by both parties, the Client forfeits any rights to use the services of the entertainer on that date, irrespective of deposits or cancellation fees paid.
6. The Client must ensure that the Entertainer has access to adequate electrical power (in the case of marquees etc) at the Entertainers working position. The working position must not obstruct any emergency exit route, and must allow enough space for the Entertainer to operate in comfort and safety.
7. The entertainer operates regularly serviced and maintained good quality sound equipment. In the highly unlikely event of any equipment failure, an onsite repair will be attempted. If there is an irreparable breakdown in sound a full refund will be given.
8. The entertainer shall be entitled to terminate this contract without liability if for any reason beyond its control the Entertainer is unable to perform, due to fire or theft of equipment, illness or breakdown of vehicle. The Entertainer will use all reasonable endeavors to locate a replacement Entertainer, but, in the highly and extremely unlikely event of a non-performance all monies paid will be refunded, but this will be the limit of our liability.
9. The entertainer reserves the right to change performers due to reasons beyond the entertainer's control i.e. illness, force majeure. The entertainer will provide suitably qualified personnel as substitutes, in order to ensure a consistent quality performance.
10. The client is responsible for providing the Entertainer with any song requests at least one month prior to the agreed performance date. This is to ensure that enough time is available to carry out adequate preparation and rehearsals.
11. Vanessa will perform for the duration of the ceremony including background music as guests are arriving and leaving the venue up to a point of twenty minutes after a ceremony.
12. Setup time is approx. 40 minutes; however, in the event there is a funeral at the venue it is the client's responsibility to inform Vanessa at their earliest convenience so that adequate preparations can be put in place to make up for lost time setting up and a working contact number is given.
13. For outdoor, half sheltered venues; Vanessa reserves the right to make a decision last minute on the day should she feel her electrical equipment will be under threat from wind, rain, damp weather, which is a hazard to everyone involved.
14. A non refundable booking fee is payable within 5 working days after receipt of booking form.
15. Travel expenses may apply to certain counties/venues if deemed to be a significant distance for musicians. This will be made clear at the point of inquiry/booking.

* All services quotes and prices are valid up to 30 days from first reply and can change without notice. * A non-refundable booking fee secures your quotation and date along with this booking form. These are required 7 days after my first email to you. After this your date will be released but your quotation will still hold for 1 month from the first email correspondence. No acceptations and completely at Vanessa's discretion.
